Lunchtime Supervisor

An extraordinary education for every pupil

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in joining our team here at Cranham Primary School. I am delighted that you are considering applying for a position here and I hope this application pack gives you a clear sense of who we are, what we stand for, and what we can offer you in return.

If you are passionate about education, share our values, and are excited by the opportunity to contribute to our school community, we would be delighted to receive your application.

Overview

Cranham Primary School is a two-form entry primary school located in Worcester.

We have around 380 pupils at present ranging from 3 to 11 years old and around 80 staff members. Established in 1968, Cranham joined The Rivers CofE Academy Trust in 2016.

Ethos

Our dedicated staff work hard to inspire every child to reach their full potential in a safe, nurturing, and inclusive environment.

Pupil behaviour is excellent, and our children are happy, confident, and enthusiastic about learning. Nurture is an area which is embedded in our ethos.

We are proud of our strong community links, supportive families, and governance that values the voices of both parents and pupils.

Our emblem, the Crane, reflects our aspiration for every child to “walk tall and fly high.” At Cranham, we are committed to providing an extraordinary education for every pupil

Performance

At this school 60% of pupils meet expected standard and 19% of pupils are achieving at a higher standard at Key Stage 2.

Our latest Ofsted judgment is Good.

Inspectors said ‘The school is united in its ambition to do the best for every pupil both academically and personally.’
